BIOGRAPHICAL

Hannah, and the other heirs of her father, James W. Chamberlin, deceased, sold land in Stafford Twp., to John Wright in 1841. In 1850, her husband George Moore bought 8/10 of a cedar swamp and upland in Union Twp., from the heirs of James W. Chamberlin. Hannah was dead by this time.

A James Grover, aged 16 years was living with this family in 1850. He was perhaps a young brother of his second wife, Lucy, or perhaps her son by a former marriage. They probably lived at or near Waretown, NJ. Unable to find any of them in the 1870 census, except (probably) his second wife Lucy, who was listed as living alone at Waretown, aged 55 years. In 1850 her age was given as 37 which is not quite in agreement with her age given in 1870. Probably she was born about 1813-15.

The tombstone of Hannah, in the old Waretown cemetery reads: "In memory of Hannah, wife of George Moore, who departed this life July 14th, A.D., 1848, aged 34 years, 4 months and 8 days." Her birthdate was computed from this inscription.
