BIOGRAPHICAL

His name appears on the Monmouth County land records in 1841, and Ocean County land records in 1850. Their daughter Josephine had their family bible in 1921. The page containing the family record was sent to Seth C. Chamberlin in 1921, who copied it all down. He noted that the name was spelled Chamberlain up to 1850, and thereafter it was Chamberlin. He also noted that most of the entries were written in the hand of "Uncle James Madison." According to the bible they were married 8 April 1837, but the marriage as recorded at Freehold gives the date 15 Feb 1837 (probably the date of the license), and as having taken place at the home of his father James Woodmansee Chamberlin, living at Forked River.

In 1880, the family was living in Lacey, Ocean, NJ. NAM T-9, Roll No. 794 (FHL #1254794), P. 102B, as follows:
