CHILDREN
(By Third Marriage – Continued)

- M vii Thomas Dickerson, b. 2 May 1876, American Fork, Utah Co., UT. When he was a young man, Thomas apparently went to eastern Oregon and perhaps lived with or near his uncle John Addoms who had gone to Baker City about 1885. Some time afterwards, he fell from a horse and struck his head, causing permanent brain damage. After this, he was cared for by the Oregon State Hospital then located at Pendleton, OR. He was probably the Thomas Roscoe Dickerson, who died near Nye, Umatilla Co., Oregon, 29 Oct 1913, (Nye was a little town about 15 miles south of Pendleton.) and buried at the Olney Cemetery in Pendleton, in Grave 1, Lot 70, Block 5.

BIOGRAPHICAL

Catherine and her first husband separated before the birth of their only child Sarah Elizabeth Teeples. William Teeples' second wife Harriet Betsey Cook (Phineas Wacot & Ann Eliza [Howland] Cook) was born 28 Oct 1844, Richland, Kalamazoo Co., MI. She was living at Sun River, Montana on 21 Oct 1930, aged 86 years, less one week.

William Burgess was baptized by his brother Harrison Burgess and confirmed by the prophet Joseph Smith. he was Captain of the Third Company, 5th Regiment, Nauvoo Legion; Col. 2nd Regiment Territorial Militia 1854; Indian War veteran; served in Echo Canyon trouble. He was a farmer and sawmill man.

Catherine's obituary appeared in a local Ogden newspaper, 18 Nov 1916, and reads as follows:

BURGESS - Mrs. Katherine Dickerson Burgess of American Fork, Utah, died a 3 a.m. today at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Althea Brown. Death was due to general debility. Mrs. Burgess was 77 years old, having been born in New Jersey, May 27, 1839. She was baptized into the Mormon church when 13 years old and came to Utah with her parents as a pioneer emigrant. The family settled at Spanish Fork and the deceased lived there many years doing great service in the community as a member of the Relief Society. She came to Ogden about a month ago to visit her daughter, following a family reunion held at Burley, Idaho. Mrs. Burgess is survived by the following children: Mrs. Sarah E. Thompson, Dundee, Ore; Joseph C. Burgess, Burley, Idaho; Mrs. Althea Brown of Corinne and Ogden, Utah; Charles H. Burgess, Idaho; Arthur Dickerson, Salt Lake City, and Thomas Dickerson, Pendleton, Ore. Twenty-six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren also survive. The body was removed to the Larkin mortuary to be prepared for burial and will be shipped to Salt Lake tomorrow for interment. The funeral will be held Monday in the Larkin-Hull chapel.

This article misspells her given name (Katherine instead of Catherine) and errs in calling her Mrs. Burgess, as she was then Mrs. Dickerson. It also should have mentioned that her maiden name was Chamberlin and that she was also survived by two sisters (Mrs. Althea Brown and Mrs. Josephine Johnson). It also errs in stating that her family (after coming to Utah) settled at Spanish Fork (should be Salt Lake City). A question also arises at the mention of her son Thomas Dickerson as a survivor, as it seems that he died several years before at Pendleton, OR.

Her obituary also appeared in the The Deseret News, Salt Lake City, UT, Saturday, November 18, 1916, P.10, Ogden Department:

Mrs. Catherine Dickerson Answers Call of Death

Ogden, November 18 - Catherine Dickerson, 77 years old, an early pioneer, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alpheia [Althea] Brown, 2507 Adams Avenue. Mrs. Dickerson was born in New Jersey and joined the church in her girlhood. She lived at American Fork 40 years, and had latterly been living here with her daughter. She is survived by three sons and three daughters, 26 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. The body will be taken to Salt Lake City Monday morning and funeral services will be held there Monday afternoon in the Larkin Hull Funeral Chapel. Interment will be in the Salt Lake City Cemetery.

Catherine was buried in Plat A, Block 8, Lot 10 in the Chamberlin Plot located on the northwest corner of Grand and Central in the Salt Lake City Cemetery. There is no headstone on her grave.
