BIOGRAPHICAL

They were married at the home of John Lippincott according to their marriage record. This John is believed to be her uncle rather than her father as might be supposed.

Her parentage is in question. Butler's notes state she was the daughter of Manley Lippincott, but Lydia's death record states that her parents were John and Rebecca Lippincott. The baptisms for the dead performed by Deborah Pratt Lippincott in June 1890 at Manti, Utah, stated by herself to be a daughter of John and Rebecca Lippincott, said that she was a niece of Lydia Lippincott who married Aaron Chamberlin. Thus, Lydia's father must have been a brother of the John Lippincott who married Rebecca Hull. Whether or not his name was Manley remains to be proven, although note that Aaron and Lydia named their first son Manley and that John and Rebecca Lippincott also named a son Manley.

The relationship of Aaron Groomes is believed to be that of a son-in-law, as it now appears he married their daughter Amelia. In Butler's notes, under Manley Lippincott, he states: "Mrs. Groomes recalls that she had Uncles David and Daniel, and Aunts Penelope and Sene." It is inferred that these are other children of Manley Lippincott.

Aaron Chamberlin, of Union Twp., Ocean County, bought land in Forked River, of T.K. Brinley, State Surveyor, in 1850. Aaron Chamberlin was apparently a school teacher and kept school for many years at Manahawkin, NJ.

There are some inconsistencies in some of the dates as given for the children. See sources cited.

They were both dead before 1880, as his Inventory was taken in 1879. Their son David L. and son-in-law Aaron Groomes, were appointed administrators of the estate of Aaron Chamberlin, late of Lacey Twp., and deeded land to Garrett Stout, Jr., in 1881. The latter and wife Mary deeded the same back to David L. Chamberlin. In 1889, David L. Chamberlin, and wife Lydia sold land to Jane Stout, Executrix of Garret Stout, Sr., deceased, land bought of Garret Stout, Sr., and mortgaged to him.
