BIOGRAPHICAL

Freedom Chamberlin was admitted to the church and baptized as an adult, 25 Mar 1733; received to the Second Church of Colchester (later Westchester) 18 May 1740. He sold property in Colchester, a house and 76 acres in 1750; a mansion, barn and 40 acres in 1754. Shortly after this he removed to East Haddam, CT.

There are many vague areas in this record which need further clarification. Prentiss Glazier suggests checking the Waters Family for possible connection to his first wife Mary and close examination of the East Haddam and Colchester land records. The connection of the indicated son Freedom is not proven. In addition, the grouping of the children according to marriages may not be entirely correct.
