BIOGRAPHICAL

He served in Captain Kingman's company, Col. Mitchell's regiment for 9 days on the alarm of Rhode Island, 8 Dec 1776. Also enrolled in Captain Snow's company, same regiment.

Job Chamberlin was a cordwainer and settled in the eastern part of Bridgewater where he was constable in 1767 and a highway surveyor in 1773. He died of a "quick fever." His estate was settled on 27 September 1794 upon Isaac, the youngest son, he paying proportionate amounts of money to the other children. The widow's dower was set off on 13 Apr 1807.

She inherited a share in her father's real estate. On 26 Sep 1814, Rachel signed (with her mark) and agreement with her son-in-law Mark Phillips, in which she was to turn over to him all her real estate, etc., and he was to support her during sickness and health during her natural life (Mayflower Descendant, Volume XIV, P. 165).
