BIOGRAPHICAL

In 1790, Luther Chamberling was living in Chemung, Montgomery Co., NY, heading a family of 2-0-1 (2 males 16 years of age and upwards, 1 female). This record indicates that his first son had been born soon after the census was taken.

In 1790, the area now contained in Chenango county was part of Montgomery county. In 1791, Herkimer and Tioga counties were formed from parts of Montgomery and in 1798, parts of Herkimer and Tioga counties were taken to form Chenango county.

In 1800, Luther Chamberlin was living in Chenango, Chenango Co., NY, heading a family of 4001-1001 (4 males under the age of 10 years, 1 male between the ages of 26 and 45 years, 1 female under the age of 10 years, 1 female between the ages of 26 and 45 years).

In 1810, Luther Chambelin was living in Jericho, Chenango Co., NY, heading a family of 31101-1101 (3 males under the age of 10 years, 1 male between the ages of 10 and 16 years, 1 male between the ages of 16 and 26 years, 1 male aged 45 years and upwards, 1 female under the age of 10 years, 1 female between the ages of 10 and 16 years, 1 female between the ages of 26 and 45 years).

In 1820, Luther Chamberlin was living in Bainbridge, Chenango Co., NY, heading a family of 000001-00201 (1 male aged 45 years and upwards, 2 females between the ages of 16 and 26 years, 1 female aged 45 years and upwards). One person engaged in Agriculture.

Luther is not found in 1830 census when he was probably living with one of his children.

Glazier says that when Luther removed to Trout Creek (later Delaware Co., NY), he was accompanied by his brothers Joseph, Selah, Calvin, and probably Eliphalet.

Of this family, Cutter writes:

Luther Chamberlin married Temperance Pollard and about 1790 went with his wife to New York state from Brattleboro, Vermont, settling on part of Lot 66, in the northern part of "Jericho" (now Bainbridge), on Stockwell's creek. This was part of the land originally granted to his father, but Luther did not remain there long, preferring to migrate to a fine farm on the west side of the Susquehanna river, some six miles further south. A little settlement which had already begun to grow just at the northern line of this farm was known a little later as South Bainbridge, and is now Afton. Here were born and reared several children . . .
