BIOGRAPHICAL

He removed to Pineville (now Tompkins), Delaware Co., New York, as a young man, along with his brothers Calvin and Joseph, probably sometime between 1800 and 1810. In any case he was enumerated in the federal census for Tompkins in the years 1810, 1820 and 1830.

In 1810, he was heading a family of 10010-20100 (1 male under 10 and 2 females under 10 — perhaps Diana, Jennie and Albert).

In 1820, his family consisted of 310010-12010. The children appear to be:

Three males under 10, probably Selah, George and Eliphalet
One male 10-16, Albert
One female under 10, Maria
Two females 10-16, probably Diana and Jennie

In 1830, his family was grouped as 0221101-3010201.

Two males 5-10, Calvin and Darius
Two males 10-15, George and Eliphalet
One male 15-20, Selah
One male 20-30, Albert
Three females under 5, Ruth and two other unknown daughters?
One female 10-15, Maria
Two females 20-30, Diana and Jennie

The 1830 census groupings indicate that he had at least two daughters born between 1825 and 1830 whose names are unknown.

The family has not been located in the 1840 census. Probably after Eliphalet's death in 1837, his widow and remaining children at home lived with one of the elder daughters who was probably married by then.

In 1850, Eliphalet's widow Julia and incompetent son Albert were living with son George and wife and were enumerated in the 1850 census as follows: Tompkins, Delaware Co., NY., #389/—, 1 Aug 1850, P. 329:

Chamberlain	George	38	M	W	Farmer	$ 1,000	Massachusetts
Chamberlain	Jane	22	F	W			Massachusetts
Chamberlain	Julia	67	F	W			Massachusetts
Chamberlain	Albert *	40	M	W			Massachusetts

* Idiotic

Based on other evidence, George's age seems high by about 3 years, and I do not think either he or Albert were born in MA.

Family traditions of some of his descendants say that Eliphalet's children were born in Brattleboro, VT, and the 1850 census records of children Albert and George state they were born in Massachusetts. Much work remains to be done on this family to clarify birthplace jurisdictions.

A letter from Mrs. Charles A. Taylor, of Woodston, Kansas, to Mrs. Portia Chamberlain on Jan 15, 1978, quoted a letter from Fred E. Chamberlain, of Pomona, California, to Prentiss Glazier in 1953, wherein he stated Eliphalet's date of birth and date of death; also supplied the children's names Selah, Darius, George, Albert and Diana.

A letter from Mrs. Wesley Chamberlain (her husband is a descendant of Selah), of Herrick, Illinois, to Mrs. Portia Chamberlain, dtd 11 July 1978, supplies additional children's names of Calvin, Jennie, Maria, Eliphalet, and Ruth, but omits Albert.

The son Rufus is not mentioned in these sources and his connection is tenuous. However, old time residents (descendants of Rufus) in Delaware county remember family connections with the children of Darius, and indeed, Rufus named a son Darius. In-depth research in Delaware county land and probate should reveal more definite proof.
