BIOGRAPHICAL

His wife Caroline came to Greene County, NY, about the year 1830 (according to the 1855 New York state census).

In 1831, Benjamin Chamberlain, Jr., of Lexington, NY, was grantee to land in Lexington, being the east half of great lots 21 and 48.

The New York state census of 1865 places Caroline, a widow, aged 54 years, as living in Ashland, Greene County, and states that she had been married twice and had had nine children in all. Two were listed: Frank, 19 years old and in the army and Caroline, aged 14 years, living at home.

According to Mrs. Georgia S. Murray, Benjamin and his brother Albert both died of consumption.

The 1860 Census Mortality Schedules (not seen) supplies his date of death.
