BIOGRAPHICAL

Albert was born about 1810-11. He was a blacksmith and was living in Jewett, Greene Co., NY, at the time of the state census in 1855. On 24 March 1838, Albert H. Chamberlain, of Lexington, NY, mortgaged land in Lot 21 in the Hardenburgh Patent (105 acres (land leased in 1819 to William Webster).

In 1840, he was listed as Albert K. Chm and heading a family of 00002- 001011001.

According to Mrs. Georgia S. Murray, his gravestone gives his year of birth as 1812 which seems incorrect as his brother Peleg was known to have been born that year—unless, of course, they were twins. If not, then the Albert H. Chm who married Roxanne Root was of another family. Another possibility is that the stonecutter erred.

He and his brother Benjamin both died of consumption.

The 1850 census gives his age as 40 years (b. 1810), the 1855 census gives his age as 44 (b. 1811) and the 1860 census gives his age as 49 (b. 1811). Obviously born about 1810-11.

In the 1900 census, his widow was living at Lexington, NY, where she was listed as Roxie Peck, widow, indicating her second husband Alfred Peck was dead. This record stated that she had had five children of whom two were still alive.

Her birthdate is supplied by Mrs. Georgia S. Murray; however, her gravestone gives her year of birth as 1820.
