BIOGRAPHICAL

The Whitman Genealogy gives his birthdate as 31 Dec 1787, and also states he settled in Mansfield in 1811.

He was a housewright; later engaged in the business of dyeing; removed to Mansfield before 1815. His homestead was on the east side of the road from the meeting house at Mansfield Centre to Micah Allen's corner. The First Baptist Society of Mansfield owned land adjoining it (1865).

His brother Calvin left him a bequest in 1863.

His will was dated 11 Mar 1863; proved 6 Oct 1865. He mentions his son Lysander, and daughters Louisa Crosby and Amelia M. Tew, but left his homestead to his daughter Cornelia Chamberlain, and the residue of his estate to his wife Ruth, with the use of the homestead for life. His books were to be divided among his six grandsons (Bristol Probate).
