BIOGRAPHICAL

He was baptized with his sister Abiah and brother Wells in 1794 at Dalton. Probably the Joseph W. Chamberlin who kept the old “Eagle” or Chamberlain Hotel at Pittsfield, MA.

His age at death yields a calculated birthdate of 19 Sep 1786, which does not agree with the bible record of his brother William Cole⁷ Chamberlin [LN 2810]. According to his death certificate, seen by Prentiss Glazier, he was a widower and was born in Unionville, CT. The Biographical Record of Hartford Co., Connecticut, also states he married Catherine Holden.

This family was enumerated in the 1850 census as follows: Pittsfield, Berkshire Co., MA, #578/616, 2 Sep 1850, P. 217:

Chamberlain	Joseph	67	M	W	Laborer	Connecticut
Chamberlain	Anna	67	F	W		Massachusetts

The record of his second marriage (Intention) calls her Almira, but in the census record she is named as Anna.

According to records compiled by his niece, Adaline Eliza Ann⁸ (Chamberlin) Fowler [LN 3203], Joseph had four daughters in addition to the three sons listed in this record. However, their names remain unknown.
