BIOGRAPHICAL

On 19 May 1856, Anson B. Chamberlin, a minor of Twinsburg, aged 15 years, orphan of Joel G. Chamberlin, deceased, chose George H. Alling to be his guardian (Summit Co., Ohio, Probate, Vol. 1, P. 174). George Alling either died soon after or refused the guardianship for on 24 Nov 1856, Anson B. Chamberlin, aged 16 years, chose Alonzo S. Nelson as his guardian; Adin Post and Seymour Chamberlin were named as Sureties. On 28 Nov 1856, A.S. Nelson filed his bond (Probate Court, Vol. 2, P. 250). On 12 Aug 1861, A.S. Nelson, guardian of Anson B. Chamberlin, filed his final account and request for reimbursement of his expenditures which was approved by A.H. Lewis, Probate Judge. (Probate Court, Vol. 3, P. 427).

The History of Twinsburg stated that “Anson Chamberlin worked as a clerk in Nelson's store.”

In 1862, Anson B. Chamberlin, et al (probably his brothers and sister), sold land to their uncle Philo Chamberlin; again in 1867, they sold land.

At the age of 22, Anson joined the Army of the Frontier, Company A, 84th Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, Springfield, MO, on or about 4 Nov 1862. He acted in the capacity of a company clerk serving on the staff of General Shofield.

Anson started a diary about 18 Dec 1862 and continued intermittently through 16 Aug 1863. Most of his entries deal with his increasing loneliness and separation from his “dear Mattie.”

On 2 Feb 1900, Anson's wife Martha, submitted an application for membership in the D.A.R. based upon military service of one Jedediah Palmer, her ancestor. In this application, she stated she was residing at 1926 Clybourn St., Milwaukee, WI; a daughter of Sanford Holmes and Mary (Palmer) Bishop, born in Solon, Cuyahoga Co., OH (no birthdate stated), and the wife of Anson B. Chamberlin. Membership was granted and she was given D.A.R. # 32746.

They were enumerated in the 1900 census as follows: Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co., WI, #71/75, —?— 1850, P. — :

The 1900 Soundex lists this family as follows:

NAME	Age	Sex	Race	Birthdate	Rel.	Birthplace
A. B. Chamberlin	58	M	W	Aug 1841	Head (Clerk)	OH/OH/VT
Martha A. Chamberlin	57	F	W	Jan 1843	Wife	OH/CT/OH
James A. Chamberlin	18	M	W	Oct 1881	Son (Student)	OH/OH/OH

Anson's obituary appeared in a local newspaper and reads as follows:

FORMER TICKET AGENT AT OLD MILWAUKEE STATION DIES AT HARTLAND, WISCONSIN

Anson B. Chamberlin, aged 74 years, father of A.B. Chamberlin, of Minneapolis and one of the oldest employees of the Milwaukee road, died today at Hartland, Wisconsin. In Minneapolis, Mr. Chamberlin will be remembered as the genial ticket agent at the old Milwaukee station which stood sixteen years ago at Washington and Fourth Avenues.

Mr. Chamberlin was born in Ohio. He removed to Milwaukee forty-six years ago where he began his career with the Milwaukee road in the old Reed street station. From there he was transferred to Minneapolis fourteen years later, where he remained sixteen years as ticket agent. About 1897, he returned to Milwaukee, where he was assigned a position in the new union station. Mr. Chamberlin retired on a pension position at Hartland about 1900. He was associated in early days at Milwaukee with A.J. Earling, now president of the Milwaukee road; Frederick D. Underwood, now president of the Erie road; Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific road, and Sir William Van Horne of Montreal. These men were all connected with the Milwaukee road at the same time.

Mr. Chamberlin had been confined at his home three weeks with valvular heart trouble. Mrs. Chamberlin died Oct. 22, 1912. Surviving are three sons, A.B. Chamberlin, of Bertrand & Chamberlin, architects, Minneapolis; A.V. Chamberlin, banker, of Coeur d'Alene, ID; J.A. Chamberlin, locating and constructing engineer for the Canadian Northern, now in British Columbia. Funeral and interment will take place Sunday at Hartland, Wisconsin.”
