(By Second Marriage - probably Others)

F 5672 Destimony⁷, b. About 1812 (?), probably Newbury, Orange Co., VT. Married Amos Cornell. He was the son of Amos and Lucy (Bennett) Cornell, and a Mayflower descendant. They had a son Norman Riley Cornell, who m. Mary Fletcher Timmonds. Their daughter Mary Gertrude Cornell was DAR # 36691 (Lineage Books, Vol. 22, 37).

BIOGRAPHICAL

He settled in White River Junction (just North of Lebanon, NH, across the Connecticut River in Vermont) according to Wells.

The History of New Ipswich says Lucy was the daughter of Benjamin & Abigail (Wright) Knowlton, b. 13 Jan 1786, m. John Chamberlain and had two children.

Not found in the 1810 census, in fact no John's were found in Orange Co., VT, nor Grafton Co., NH, which would cover the area where he was supposed to have settled. In 1820, only one John is found in Newbury, Orange County, which appears to be this man, at least he is in the right age category; family was 01001-2111, which indicates he had at least five children. Not located in either the 1830 or 1840 censuses for Orange Co., Vermont, which indicates he was either dead or perhaps had left VT. Not enough information at hand to try and locate in other jurisdictions.
