BIOGRAPHICAL

Her death record calls her “widow.”

He lived at Windsor Locks, CT, and died many years ago. One son was living there in 1901 (History of Newbury, Vermont).

Her sister Anna Pierce (b. 10 June 1831), married a “Mr. Chamberlin.”

The Woburn vital records give her name as “Price”; she of Woburn, he of Charlestown.

He is not found in any census records from 1840-1850.

The published vital records for Cambridge (like the other published vital records), irritatingly cuts everything off at 1850, in this case omitting the death dates. The published Cambridge record gives the birth dates of Lowell and his second wife Eliza, as probably derived from their gravestone records as the record references the Mt. Auburn Cemetery in Cambridge.

PREPARATION OF THIS RECORD
