BIOGRAPHICAL

At one time he was located in Galesburg, Knox Co., Illinois, where he was associated as partner with a Mr. Spear and conducted a gentleman's furnishing store. Later, he was associated with S.M. Allen in the same line of business. About 1890, he removed to Chicago and opened a furnishing store at the corner of State and Monroe streets. After some years, he became identified with Mtichell & Mitchell, the originators of the exclusive $2 hat store idea and remained with them until poor health compelled his retirement.

He died at his home, 1338 Byron Avenue, Chicago, IL.

Lulu Secomb was of Rockford, IL.

The lack of jurisdictional information provided by the Wright-Chamberlin Genealogy (major source) makes it nearly impossible to lend any confidence in guessing where family events took place.
