BIOGRAPHICAL

He was a deputy-sheriff . Six children are listed in the History of Woodstock. See also the Carpenter Memorial for minor conflicts (Chamberlain Families).

Hannah was admitted to the church of Woodstock on 6 July 1740.

John resided at Woodstock, CT. On 20 Apr 1741, he purchased a tract of land in Woodstock that bounded south on his father's land. On 28 Apr 1746, his father conveyed 25 acres of land and a house to him, where "I now dwell" on condition that he "support me and my wife comfortably, both in sickness and in health and discharge all debts" that may arise by our sickness or funeral or otherwise. Before he died in 1751, his father conveyed an additional seven acres to him. In 1769, John mortgaged land in Woodstock.

Some discrepancies in children's birthdates exist between Chm Assoc Mss and Seth's cards (John, Asa, and Elizabeth).

He was the nephew of Jacob² Chamberlain; his wife was the niece of Jacob's first wife Mary Child.

The New Chamberlain Association of America Newsletter, gives their marriage date as 12 Nov 1738.
