BIOGRAPHICAL

Jacob was a housewright and owned land in Hopkinton where they resided until 4 Jan 1800, when he sold his farm and removed shortly afterwards to Danville, VT, where his son James had previously settled.

He made his will on 26 June 1801; proved 2 Sep 1801. He left the use of his estate to his wife Lydia for the rest of her life and mentioned his sons Jacob, Nathaniel, and James, and his daughter Abigail.

In 1790, Jacob Chamberlain was living in Hopkinton, Middlesex Co., MA, heading a family of 3-0-3 (3 males 16 years of age and upwards, 3 females).

Jacob is not found in the 1800 census, when he and Lydia were probably living with one of their children.

The Archive Sheet says he was born in Roxbury.
