BIOGRAPHICAL

Moses was a twin of his brother Aaron. The Chamberlain Association Manuscript gives her name as Butler. However, it is significant that his twin brother Aaron married a Sally or Sarah Bullen—probably sisters.

Prentiss Glazier says to check the Detroit Society Magazine, Vol.5, which gives a record of this family. This source also says he was born 3 July 1775. About 1820, he was living at Townshend where some or all of his children may have been born.

A Moses Chamberlain married a Rhoda Mellen, 10 July 1794. Was this possibly an earlier marriage?

In 1800, he was living at Athens, VT, aged 26-45 years, heading a family of 0001-001. In 1810, again of Athens, his family consisted of 1001-5001. Not located in the 1820 census for VT. The 1830 and 1840 censuses for Vermont do not seem to identify him either. There is a Moses at Jamaica in Windham Co., VT., in 1830, but the age groups indicate he is too young. Perhaps living with one of his children during these years.
