BIOGRAPHICAL

In 1806, Isaac Chamberlain, bought land at Pittstown, Ontario County (later Livonia, Livingston County), NY, that was linked to Pierce Chamberlain, presumed to be his brother.

In 1810, Isaac Chamberlain was living in Honeyoye, Ontario Co., NY, heading a family of 20111-10011 (2 males under the age of 10 years, 1 male between the ages of 16 and 26 years, 1 male between the ages of 26 and 45 years, 1 male aged 45 years and upwards, 1 female under the age of 10 years, 1 female between the ages of 26 and 45 years, 1 female aged 45 years and upwards). This record indicates the presence of an older couple, possibly Isaac's parents, viving with the family. Isaac's brother, Pierce, was also living in Honeyoye at this time.

In 1820, Isaac Chamberlain was living in Richmond, Ontario Co., NY, heading a family of 31001-4111 (3 males under the age of 10 years, 1 male between the ages of 10 and 16 years, 1 male between the ages of 26 and 45 years, 4 females under the age of 10 years, 1 female between the ages of 10 and 16 years, 1 female between the ages of 16 and 26 years, 1 female between the ages of 26 and 45 years). Two persons engaged in Agriculture.

In 1830, Isaac Chamberline was living in Canadice, Ontario Co., NY, heading a family of 100002-1100100001 (1 male under the age of 5 years, 2 males between the ages of 30 and 40 years, 1 female under the age of 5 years, 1 female between the ages of 5 and 10 years, 1 female between the ages of 20 and 30 years, 1 female between the ages of 70 and 80 years). This is probably wrong. This man is too young.

Isaac is not found in the 1840 census. He is said to have also lived at Canandaigua and Cayuga Co., NY.

In 1850, Isaac's widow Amy was living with her son Uriah Tracy at Andover, Ashtabula Co., OH, which indicates that Isaac was dead by this time. As he is not found in the 1840 census in either New York or Ohio, he may have died before 1840.

The notes supplied by Frederick William Chamberlain, state that Isaac and Amy were married in 1806 (no place given), and that Isaac died in 1849 at East Cleveland, OH, and that Amy died in 1858. He cites Bible Records as a main source.
