BIOGRAPHICAL

On 17 Dec 1848, Gilbert's father Isaac, and step-mother Mary, conveyed him a parcel of 39.36 acres of land in Lot No. 61 in Denmark for $100. This appears to be the same parcel of land that Isaac purchased on 15 Dec 1842, from James Eggins (Lewis County Deeds, Liber 4, pp. 371-72).

On the same day, Gilbert and Mary his wife, mortgaged this property to one Edward Metcalf as follows:

This Indenture made the seventeenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight, between Gilbert Chamberlain and Mary his wife, of Denmark in the County of Lewis and State of New York, of the first part, and Edward Metcalf of the same place of the second part.

Witnesseth that the said party of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of seven hundred dollars current money of the United States to them in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted [large ink blot across the remaining lower portion of the page]....Lot Number sixty one.....town of Denmark...containing thirty nine (39) and thirty six (36) hundredths of an acre...

To have and to hold the above bargained premises to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns sole and only property use benefit and behoof of the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever. Provided always and these presents are upon this express condition that if the said party of the first part, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid to the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the just and full sum of seven hundred dollars with interest in manner following. Viz. In six equal annual payments from the seventeenth day of December 1852, with the interest annually from the date of this mortgage according to the conditions of a certain bond or writing bearing ---- date herewith executed by the said party of the first part to the party of the second part as collateral security then these presents and the said bond or writing obligatory shall cease and be null and void.

But in case of the non payment of the said sum of seven hundred dollars with the interest or any part thereof at the time or times above limited for the payment thereof, having But in case of the non-payment of the said sum of seven hundred dollars or any part thereof at the time or times above limited for the payment thereof then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said party of the second part his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns and to the part of the first part doth hereby empower and authorize the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns to grant, bargain, sell, release and convey the said premises with the appurtenances thereunto belonging at public auction, or vendue and on such sale to make and execute to the purchaser or purchasers, his or her assigns forever, good ample and sufficient deeds of conveyances in the law pursuant to the statute in that case made and provided, rendering the surplus moneys, if any, there be, to the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns after deducting the cost and charges of such vendue, and sale as aforesaid.

In Witness whereof, the said party of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

Gilbert Chamberlain {L.S.}
Mary Chamberlain {L.S.}

Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of Ira Austin.

State of New York, Lewis County } ss. On the 2th day of December 1848, Gilbert Chamberlain and Mary his wife, whom I know to be the individuals described in and who executed the within instrument personally came before me and severally acknowledged that he [they] executed the same. The said Mary Chamberlain in a private examination by and before me apart from her husband acknowledged that she executed the said instrument freely and without any fear or compulsion of her husband. Ira Austin. Recorded February 6 at 12 o'clock p.m. Lucian Clark, Clerk. (Lewis County Mortgages, Vol. K, pp. 221-22).

By virtue of a satisfaction recorded in the Book X, Page 361 of the preceding mortgage, said mortgage is hereby cancelled and discharged of record. The 11th of May 1863. D.A. Steuart (?), Clerk.

In 1850, Gilbert and Mary were living in Denmark, Lewis Co., NY. Dwelling No. 1681, Family No. 1716. 8 Aug 1850, as follows:
